

April 10, 1967

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

In the April issue of SAGA, an article says that you have written a sequel to WHITEWASH, and that it can be obtained only from you.

There is no mention of cost, but I am enclosing $1.00. I believe that is what I paid for Whitewash #1. If the price is more, please send the book and I'll send extra money by return mail.

I doubt very much if you answer all your own mail, but just in case, I would like to comment on WHITEWASH. Your concentration on the various photos was very interesting to me because I work with them everyday and am familiar with the process of "cropping", etc. Also, the photo in the report which has been slit and placed back together causing the men's hats to sit on their ears. This is the worst job I've ever seen; and so obvious.

In the full Altgens Photo, you show us the background with the five escapees and mention that there was at least one arrest there immediately after the assassination, but you don't tell us who. Is this fact in the 26 vols.?

I really didn't mean to write a letter,
but, as you can see, I'm very much interested in the assassination events.

Being a book collector of sorts, I would appreciate it very much if you would be kind enough to autograph WHITEWASH II for me.

Also, I have about 2,000 old books on my attic, also some magazines. If you are ever in need of books which are O.L.F., or magazines which are hard to come by, perhaps I can help you. (tried to start used book business once, and the project fell thru.)

Keep up the good work and please
RUSH my copy of WHITEWASH II.

Sincerely,
Mary E Barton
